Belofte Berg (loosely translated as the mountain of promise)

- The Ceremony Venue:
The Berg ceremony venue is an open air sandstone chapel that has been built to be one with the surroundings. The rainbow (a symbol of promise and hope) that one so often see over the mountains symbolising the journey that the bridal couple are about to embark on in their life together. A promise they make on top of a mountain to each other and before God. The spectacular view is the perfect backdrop for a dream wedding.
- The Reception Hall:
Is decorated in shades of metallics. The eye catching large metallic mural is a focus point and makes for stunning photos in front of it. Guests particularly love the cozy and intimate venue with its grand fireplace and seating area.
- The White Waterproof Stretch Tent:
Situated in front of the reception hall and next to the Boma & Kuierkraal, highlights the look and makes for catching up with family and friends on the beautiful furniture underneath the tent.
- The Boma And Kuierkraal:
With its circular shape and roaring central bonfire, represents the warmth, unity and support of the newly-weds' family and friends.
